Write your research questions on the left and your answers in bullet style on the right. You may not write in complete sentences unless you are quoting material; this is to keep you from plagiarizing. Here are some ideas to help you focus your notes:

Find Supreme Court Cases that involved your amendments/aspects and explain the background of the case. Why did it end up in the Supreme Court? Who was involved in the case? How did the Supreme Court's ruling (verdict) impact certain groups of people, other laws, the interpretation of the amendment/aspect, etc? Why was this ruling significant (important)? Why was the case significant? Why is this amendment/aspect important to citizens? What are they protected from or able to do because of this amendment/aspect? These are just some questions you could use to guide your research.
